

Employee Handbook Template

Free Employee Handbook Template Including Policies and Procedures

This template provides sample policies and procedures are intended to guide you in developing your own employee handbook or other policy documentation. It is not designed to be used in its entirety as a complete handbook, but rather to assist in your development of a customized document. Select only the sections and policies appropriate for your business.

1. Introduction

Welcome to the Company. This handbook was developed to provide you with information necessary for existence questions and concerns. If you have questions or concerns about the policies outlined here, you should contact your supervisor in Human Resources. The performance stated in this handbook we intend to change in any year at the sole discretion of the Company. From time to time, you may receive updated information regarding any changes in policy. The contents of this handbook are not intended to create a contract or agreement between the Company and you. For those employees in a written contract by a collective bargaining agreement, you should refer to the agreement which governs your terms and conditions of employment. There are specific procedures for many of the general policies stated in the handbook. Please share any questions with your manager, department head, or Human Resources.

3. Important Notice

Issue Brief Company History
The Company's mission to:
The Company vision is:

4. Hours of Operation/Work Schedule

The office is normally 9:00am to 5:00pm Central time. Some employees may be assigned different work schedules, assign shifts other than normal office hours. If an employee must be out of the office for non-business-related matters during their regular work schedule, they should inform their manager.

5. Timekeeping

The Company is committed to creating a work environment where the needs of our customers, employees, and the Company are balanced. Therefore, the Company time is flexible at an approach to work styles and routine. Telecommuting arrangement may be approved on a "case-by-case" basis or set up on a regular schedule. In other cases employees are encouraged to spend time working at the office whenever possible. This allows employees to be accessible in person and receive a sense of community and collaboration among work topics. When employees desire to work at home, the Company will evaluate their needs in it.